How THE MONEY GOES. - Some French Minister, Richelieu, if we remember right, used to give directions to his tax-gatherers, when they went out among the people to gather the revenues, "not to pluck the goose so closely as to make it squeak." Apparently there is no American financier, who has sense enough, or, if he has sense, who has strength enough, to enforce such instructions on our tax-gatherers. That patient goose, our good public, does, "squeak" most plaintively under its taxes, and without relief. Yet, it is not so much the closeness of the plucking as the manner of it, that makes the American public dissatisfied with the operation of the revenue system. We have a great debt, contracted in a long and desperate war. The people are content to pay that debt in any just and proper way, and will make reasonable sacrifices to that end; but when they see, as they have seen for years, an expensive machinery for collection on the one hand, and a multitude of "itching palms," in those who run the machinery, on the other hand, it is no wonder that the people complain. The case may be likened to some of those foreign charitable societies, whose money, if it ever reaches the beneficiaries, does a great deal of good, but who yet lose in the transmission so great a part of the charity through the percentage and salaries of agents as to make the affair a doubly expensive one to the charitable givers. Nor is this all. Other elements besides expensive machinery come in to diminish the amount of the taxes wrung out of the hard earnings of the people. It any class of officers should be not only above the charge of corruption, but above suspicion of it, surely it should be those who assess and collect the revenues. Even the judicial officers of the government ought not to be more upright, or incapable of dishonesty. And yet we habitually find revenue offices distributed as the spoils of party triumph to men whose chief recommendation is their past party service. If our readers think we overstate the evil, they have only to glance through the following official table of moneys due from a few of the ex-collectors of the single State of New York.

the amounts due from collectors of internal revenue not now in office: A. M. Wood, $443,169.21; Alex Spaulding, A. M. Wood, $443,109.21; Alex Spanishly, $438,455.39; C. E. Pratt, $115,019.86; T. O'Callagen, $67,524.74; T. C. Callicott. $82,-738.95; W. Masten, $91,508.83; H. Mc-Laughlin, (acting) $73,616.85; Jas. Forsyth, $109.227.43; J. F. Bailey, $785,869.60; S. T. Richards, $32,310.56; Jos. Hoxie, $44,-067.62; T. R. Walker, $122,061.67; Lewis J. Kirk, $107,240.60; R. H. Avery, $26,723. 57; M. B. Field, $529,661.05; Saml. P. Allen, $127.067.49; M. B. Blake, (first term) $22,284.09 ; J. B. Halstead, $18,933,98 ; Wm. Boardman, $16,597,07; H. W. Hascall, $72,-861.90; Milton Smith, $19,503.39; S Shook,

This table is taken from the statement of the Secretary of the Treasury, made pursuant to the House resolution demanding a return of $1,042,303.71. Here, then, we have the amounts still due from gentlemen no longer in office, in a single State; and we have struck out, simply for the purpose of condensation and convenience, all sums below $10,000, thus materially reducing the size of the list. In some cases explanation is easy and satisfactory; but, in many others, the government will never see a dollar of the money wrung out of the people. Read the whole system of tax gathering in the light of these official revelations, and say if it is any wonder that the taxed public complains of the rough "plucking" it receives from the hands of the tax-gatherers? Paying taxes to decrease the debt is one thing, but paying taxes to line the pockets of political adventurers is quite another.-Phil. Record

[COMMUNICATED. IVY HILL CEMETERY! - A visit to this beautiful place will richly repay every one who has a taste for natural beauty; for a lovelier spot cannot be found in this section of country. It is as it designed by nature for the purpose for which it is now used, and it is really a pity that this lovely spot should have been neglected for years. There is now, however, hope of its being reclaimed; a visit I made to the place in company with a friend last Sunday, convinced me of the fact. So changed is the appearance of the place, for the better, that after remaining several hours, we left reluctantly, wishing that it might remain daylight a while longer, and we promised ourselves to go again and again, as often as time and weather will

The carriage road and walks are now free from reeds and grass; the brush and dead leaves which had accumulated for years, have been cleared away, so that every part of the grounds can be seen, and the grass and lovely wild flowers make their appearance; in short tew persons are aware how beautiful a natural park we have within reach of half an hour's walk of our city. The road leading to the Cemetery, having also been much improved this spring, the walk is not at all fatiguing and the view from the summit of the hill is truly grand and picturesque. Another, and not the least, of the attractions of the place, is the numerous birds which are there undisturbed, and as it is not difficult to find a secluded and shady spot, one can sit for hours and listen to their merry warbling, and for a time forget the cares and trials of this world. The new Superintendent, Mr. Fitzgerald, has alone brought about this great change, by laboring diligently, unaided, and we fear so far unappreciated by any one, for the last three months, and it is to be hoped that the lot and stockholders will substantially encourage him in his efforts to reclaim this heretofore much neglected spot, and make it what it really should be, the pride of Alexandria. Not wishing to take up too much of your space at this time, Mr. Editor, I will reserve all of the newest styles, which she is now se more for a future communication, and it by lecting at the North. this I induce others to make a visit to Ivy Hill, I know that they will thank me for the sugrestion, and like myself enjoy the treat. the evils produced. Thousands of persor of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the wide of his country. his country, the pride of his parents, should be seatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain se eret habit. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, we. from education and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin beness and arms, blotches on the head, tace and dimness of sight, dealness, hodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the cone of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awfu disease becomes a horrid object of commissera tion, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY-FACT that thou sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MY R-GURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable. DR. JOHNSON.
